We  Our Pets
A coffee-table book project to raise funds for
THE OREGON HUMANE SOCIETY

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Charles Waugh is creating a coffee-table book of 200 pets and their owners to raise funds for the Oregon Humane Society.

Portland, OR, October 23, 2017:

Charles G. Waugh of Charles Fine Art Portraits (www.charleswaugh.com) is creating a coffee table book called 'We Love Our Pets' (www.weloveourpets.org) featuring portraits of families and their pets. 100% of the profits from the sale of the book will go to the Oregon Humane Society.

Charles, the founder of Charles Fine Art Portraits, headquartered in Portland, Oregon, is an award winning creator of fine art portraiture. Charles' previous two books raised over $70,000 total for the Oregon Humane Society and DoveLewis Animal Hospital.

For the current book, he is pushing himself creatively to make a book of striking images that leave smiles or astonishment in their wake. Regarding his passion for pet photography, Charles says, "I really enjoy working with pets and their owners, the bond between us and our pets is so close, I love to capture that in portraits."

It's $200 to sign up for the book project and each family gets a full page in the book, plus a copy of the finished book.

Having two cats and two ducks, with chickens, dogs, goats, and rats in his past, Charles has a personal appreciation for the variety of pets people have. He happily admits that he loves working with animals and children and 'puts up with adults'.

The official website is www.weloveourpets.org, where anyone can sign up to have their pets and their family, in the book.

Charles is available for TV or radio interviews and can arrange for a client's photographic session to be videoed or photographed as well.
